

Our client runs a chain of healthcare facilities that provide optimized and patient-centered healthcare services to patients/clients. They provide top-of-the-line services to all clients at the most affordable rates. As a result of expansion and strategic initiatives aimed at delivering increased value to patients' experience, career opportunities exist for high performing professionals that can contribute to a rapidly growing organization.

Position: Medical Officer

Location: Egbeda, Lagos

Reports to: The Principal Medical Officer

Job Role: Essentially responsible for restoring patient's optimum health. The Medical Officer will perform health assessments, run diagnostic tests, prescribe medication, create treatment plans and provide health and wellness advice to patients.

Job Responsibilities:

- Assist in planning, implementing, and administering health programs and illness prevention activities to ensure that staff adopt a healthy lifestyle and prevent disease.
- Assist in the implementation of policies/guidelines and management protocols for the promotion of best practice in the hospital.
- Assist in planning and overseeing all patient care.
- Liaise with HOD/HR in the provision of clinical training and opportunities to staff for continuous development.
- Ensure compliance to legal guidelines, internal policies, and quality standards requirements.
- Performs minor surgical procedures commensurate with surgical competency as directed by the HOD.
- Participate in prompt emergency medical response in order to render care and prevent disease and injury.
- Respecting the privacy, dignity, needs and beliefs of patients, dependents, and colleagues.
- Committed to lifelong learning and audit to ensure evidence-based practice and maintenance of patient safety and quality standards.
- Providing comprehensive general medical services as directed by the HOD.
- Screening for various Cancers and medical conditions i.e., cervical, and prostate cancer screening (VIA, Pap smear etc.)
- Serves and protects the hospital community by adhering to professional standards, hospital policies and procedures, federal, state, and local requirements, and Safe Care standards.
- Attend to all emergencies and unforeseen contingencies.
- Assist in coordinating clinic activities including ANC, NCD clinics and others.

- Assist in coordinating all clinical activities including nursing, pharmacy and Laboratory.
- Involvement in the quality improvement program in the hospital.
- Any other requirements as stated by Head of Department

Key Skills & Competencies:

- Proven experience as medical officer
- Professional experience in healthcare management
- Excellent knowledge and experience in screening, diagnostic procedures and clinical supervision and program management.
- Excellent time management with good interpersonal skills.
- Proficient in HIV/TB care.
- Patient Oriented with excellent counseling skills.
- Excellent knowledge of standards (e.g. ISO, SafeCare) and regulations for the clinical field
- Proficient in MS Office and computer systems (e.g. patient management software)
- Excellent communication and people skills
- Exceptional organizational skills, team building skills.
- Aptitude in resolving issues and conflicts

Qualifications and experience

- BSc/BA in medicine, clinical administration, medical science relevant field
- MSc/MA is desirable.
- Candidates must possess at least 5 years post NYSC experience covering different specialties.
- Candidates must possess a current practicing license.

Method of Application

Interested candidates should send their cover letter and CV to:
recruitment@anadach.com with “Medical Doctor” as the Subject of the email.

Further enquiries can be sent to recruitment@anadach.com or call 08135139335.